Impressions of Italy: Adrienne Wyman

arrive July 28 — depart August 4, 2019

Immerse yourself in the unspoiled world that has inspired artists for centuries. This workshop will be a combination of hand-on painting in the studio, plein air sessions on location, painting demonstrations and excursions which will fill your creative well for years to come. Whether you are a new or experienced painter, there will be techniques for everyone to learn. All levels are welcome. Adrienne paints in oils, but students may paint in either oils or acrylics. There will be lovely still life set ups with dappled light in the mountainside studio in Montorno; cascading flowers on earthen walls, scenic mountains landscapes, colorful boats and beach umbrellas by the sea, charming lines of laundry in hilltop villages, antique doors, stone bridges and more.

Enjoy excursions to picturesque locales like the beach at Forte dei Marmi, the walled city of Lucca, the world-renowned villages of Cinque Terre, sculptures and mosaics of Pietrasanta and the town of Seravezza where Michelangelo once lived. Adrienne's teaching style is positive, encouraging, and infused with art history and techniques that span from the Old Masters to Post-Impressionists. Lessons will include: painting with direct, bold and beautiful brush strokes like John Singer Sargent; capturing the effects of sunlight using Impressionist color theory; Leonardo DaVinci's lessons on atmospheric perspective; maximizing transparent and opaque pigments to create depth and drama.

Adrienne Wyman is best known for: lifelike portraits, intimate mother and child scenes, and portraying vibrant markets and cultures around the world. As a teacher, Adrienne is encouraging, communicates clearly, and has an infectious passion for art history. A popular instructor at the Smithsonian Associates in Washington, DC, teaching oil painting classes infused with lessons from art history which combine hands-on painting, lectures and museum tours. Adrienne also lectures at George Mason University's Osher Lifelong Learning Institute and Montgomery College as well as teaching visual arts at Blyth Templeton Academy on Capitol Hill.

Workshop fee: $2,720.00 USD

A companion fee of $2,350 (USD) does not include drawing, painting, sculpting, or photography instruction. Accommodations are double occupancy. A limited number of single-occupancy accommodations are available for an additional fee of $350 (USD), due at the time of deposit.

This 8-day/7-night workshop includes just about everything except air fare—airport transfers, accommodations, fabulous home-cooked food, wine, transportation to painting locations, and lots of expert instruction. Participants bring their own paints and gear. Odorless mineral spirits provided.
