Painting Tuscan Life: Gavin Glakas

arrive August 8 — depart August 20, 2019

Gavin's workshop will focus on his great artistic loves—historical landscape and cityscape painting and portrait and figure painting. We'll paint and draw in the ancient village of Seravezza, where Michelangelo once lived and worked, as well as with models in the studio. We can set up still lifes and get lost in the details of barn doors or sweeping vistas. Gavin will give group lessons, demos and individual feedback, and students will have plenty of time to work at their own pace, spend as much (or as little) time as they'd like working with Gavin, and take breaks to read, explore and possibly nap. During the thirteen-day sessions you'll have eight full days of painting or drawing instruction and demonstration, a day trip to visit a local site like Lucca or Pietrasanta, and two free days to relax or explore.

Gavin is an artist with work in the permanent collections of the US Capitol, the Virginia State Capitol, universities, museums and collections around the world. He studied at Washington University in St. Louis, the Slade School of Art in London, and with Danni Dawson and Robert Liberace. He is represented by Principle Gallery in Alexandria, VA, and Charleston, SC, and he teaches painting and drawing at the Yellow Barn Studio in Glen Echo, MD. He lives in McLean, VA, with his wife, Jasmine, and two barnstorming sons, Nicholas and Rory.

Workshop fee: $3,680.00 USD

A companion fee of $3,280 (USD) does not include drawing, painting, sculpting, or photography instruction. Accommodations are double occupancy. A limited number of single-occupancy accommodations are available for an additional fee of $500 (USD), due at the time of deposit.

This 13 day/12 night workshop includes just about everything except air fare—airport transfers, accommodations, fabulous home-cooked food, wine, transportation to painting locations, and lots of expert instruction. Participants bring their own paints and gear. Odorless mineral spirits provided.
